I AM now receiving my Fall Stock of School Books, Paper and School Stationery, and notwithstanding the great rise in prices of many of the articles in my line, I shall continue to sell with few exceptions as low, and on many articles lower than heretofore. My price will be as near the New York figure as possible, and on some goods I will guarantee to sell as low. I can confidently assert that I can and will sell as low as any merchant in the city. My rent is now from $300 to $600 lower than that of any other Stationer, and my arrangements are such that I purchase my goods a little cheaper. It is useless to enumerate the articles of my stock. I have been in the trade in Milwaukee eight years, and know something of the wants of my customers.

"It is Ignorance."

The Abolitionists are guilty of the most ridiculous inconsistencies. For instance, they have always heretofore insisted that one great object of the Kansas and Nebraska Act was to open new territory for the importation of slavery.

The Whigs and Abolitionists claim that American citizens lose the capacity to govern themselves by the mere act of emigration to the territories, that Congress can legislate for the wants of those distant communities better than they can for themselves.—Daily News.

The above is a fair specimen of Hunker veracity. It is not true that the Anti-Nebraska men have "claimed that American citizens lose the capacity to govern themselves by the mere act of emigration to the territories." Not an Anti-Nebraska Congressman or a paper ever advanced such a doctrine. Congress has the power to legislate for the territories until they have governments formed, and it cannot divert itself of that power or responsibility. The President has the appointment of all these officers, and he cannot give that power to the people of the territory. Does the Douglas bill give the people the right to elect their Governor or other officers? Not a bit of it. In fact, does the Douglas bill confer any unusual privilege upon the people of Kansas and Nebraska? None. All the bill does more than ordinary territorial bills, is to open the whole of both territories to slavery. And when the News, or any other paper talks of giving the people any new rights, they ought to know that this bill gives them none.—No Abolitionist or Whig ever found fault with giving Kansas and Nebraska a territorial government, but they did denounce the opening of all that vast empire to slavery, and their denunciations have been repeated by the loud and unanimous voice of the people.

As to the first of the above paragraphs, we repeat that the great object of the Kansas-Nebraska bill was to carry slavery into free territory, and that object has been accomplished.—Numbers of slaves have already been carried into these territories, who, had it not been for this Douglas bill, would have remained in the slave States. In proof of this we refer to an article in another column.

Storming of Sebastopol.

The intelligence by the Baltic is highly interesting, containing as it does the account of the taking of Sebastopol and the destruction of the Russian fleet. The preparations for this great battle have been going forward with great activity for some time past, by both the Allies and Russia, and by the latter was very evidently considered a coup de main. England and France staked the contest upon this battle, and had they lost it, the hordes of the Czar could not well have been checked, in their wild flush of victory, from a complete possession of the principalities, and perhaps of Constantinople itself. As it is, the Great Bear of the North has been sent howling to the northward, dispossessed of his last and favorite foothold upon the Black Sea. The slaughter of life has been terrific. Even the great battles of Napoleon—Wagram and Lodi—scarcely compare with this in their awful details. The mails of the Baltic will, undoubtedly, contain the official account of the battle, and may be expected in a few days.

All accounts seem to agree that the next blow will be struck by Sir Charles Napier at Cronstadt. The result, upon the heels of so signal a victory cannot be a matter of much doubt. National pride and enthusiasm will aid most essentially in the movements of the Baltic fleet.

The enthusiasm and rejoicing in England is said to pass all bounds at the result of the attack upon Sebastopol. This, in turn, will render any farther negotiations still more improbable, from popular pressure upon the Government.

"THE ELECTION RETURNS NO WORSE."—Under the above head the Cleveland Plaindealer "rejoices" (?) over the election after the following manner:

"As the papers say of the cholera, the reports to-day are no worse. They could not well be so. It seems the Democracy generally mistook the day of election, and are going to give the Fusionists a brush next week. However, as we have several thousand Fusionist subscribers who we doubt not are anxious to see how the things work, we shall publish all the authentic returns we can get, and, as old Zach. Taylor used to say, 'let consequences (candidates) take care of themselves.'"

[Here is inserted a picture of a very respectable chanticleer upside down.]

"On the, old Cock, on thee no more
Shall break the day dawn fresh and fair;
No purple twilight round thee pour
Its softness through thy dusky lair.
But on thy back in dirt shall lie,
The emblem of a cause forlorn;
Thy feet still pointing to the sky
Until the Presidential morn.
Paraphrase on that 'Same Old Coon.'"

SAD CASUALTY.—On the morning of the 13th, between six and seven o'clock, a skiff running between Troy and West Troy, started from the former place with seventeen passengers, nearly all of them mechanics, employed in Wheeler & Taylor's chair factory in the latter place.—When about the middle of the river two small steamers passed by them, one on either side, causing quite a swell, rendering the skiff unmanageable, finally upsetting it and precipitating the passengers into the river. Before any assistance could be sent the unfortunate victims, 11 were drowned, the remaining six being rescued after the greatest exertion.

ANOTHER PARTY for Freedom.—To-day, another large party of emigrants start from Boston for Kansas, under the auspices of the Emigrant's Aid Society. Several families are to be of the party—one from Harwich, Mass., consisting of a man and his wife and eight children, and quite a number of others comprising four, five and six children respectively.

The fifth party, and last of the season, will start about the 1st of November. The next, thereafter, will not be formed till March, 1855. Nothing can be more generous than the spirit which set on foot this magnificent movement, and nothing more sublime than the holy crusade which these emigrants have entered upon.

OHIO.—Nearly every county of the whole 87 of Ohio has been heard from, and not one has given a Nebraska majority. The result shows the State majority to be about 45,000, and the Congressional majority over 50,000! These latter figures do not look as if the Congressional vote was the least important, or that Nebraska was not the issue. Glorious Ohio! We feel proud of this opportunity to record so terrible a slaughter of the enemies of FREEDOM. We copy a capital article from the Cleveland Leader.

ASSEMBLY NOMINATIONS.—The Republicans of the Beaver Dam (Dodge Co.) District, held a Convention at Waushara on Saturday last, and nominated Gen. Wm. Blake, of the latter place, for the Assembly. Mr. B. served in the Mexican war, is a decided temperance man, possesses good abilities, and is highly esteemed by his neighbors.

The Hunkers of that district held a Convention at Beaver Dam on the same day, and nominated Judge Rose as their candidate for the Assembly.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.—The sham democracy met at Janesville, on Saturday last, and in County Convention nominated for Sheriff, Wm. P. Hall, of Fulton; for Register, T. Gibbs, of Janesville; for District Attorney, A. B. Carpenter, of Beloit; Clerk of the Court, blank; for Treasurer, D. R. Spooner, of Johnstown; for Clerk of the Board, C. P. King.—For Senator, Col. Z. P. Burdick; and for Assembly in in the Janesville District, J. J. R. Pease. No resolutions were passed.

A JOKE.—The Argus & Democrat is disposed to treat the matter of the indictment of the State Officials as a great joke. It looks to us like anything but a joke, to have 19 of 20 of one's neighbors find a true bill against a man or a conclave of men, either from personal spite or from facts before them. If the State Administration are guilty it should be known, if not, they have an opportunity to prove their innocence. We learn that the matter may be called up forthwith.

HUNKER DELEGATES—Town of Granville.—The following named delegates were elected on Saturday to the Democratic County Convention:

J. Tobin, H. Dutcher and A. Keever.
To the Senatorial Convention, T. Foster, R. Wasson and E. Dooly.
To the Democratic Assembly District Convention, (Granville and Milwaukee) James Healy, F. Wagner, P. Dockery, M. Maloney, J. W. Engles.

Assembly Convention and Nominations.

A Republican Assembly District Convention for the Towns of Eagle, Mukwonago, Genesee and Ottawa, was held at the school house in Eagle, on Saturday, Oct. 14th, pursuant to notice, and organized by appointing Jonathan Parson, Ch'n, and H. Smith, Sec'y.

On motion the Convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Assembly, which resulted in the unanimous choice of I. H. Castle of Genesee.

On motion Mr. Castle was unanimously nominated.

On motion a Committee of three, to draft Resolutions for the Convention, were appointed by the Chair.

The Convention appointed Mr. Godfrey, J. O. Harrison, Carrol Lucas, and A. R. Hinkley Assembly District Committee for the ensuing year.

The following are the Resolutions adopted by the Convention.

Resolved, That this Convention adopt the Madison Platform, as embracing the principles upon which we stand in this political contest.

Resolved, That the Candidates thus far presented by the Republican party for our support, meet our approbation, and shall receive our cordial support.

Resolved, That we disapprove of the sale of the public lands in large quantities to accommodate Speculators, but are in favor of the most radical and thorough reform in the disposition of our public domain.

Resolved, That the imputation of Know-Nothingism to the Republican party we decidedly deny, but in the selection of men, to fill the various offices of the State and Nation, we know no other criterion by which to decide than Integrity, Virtue and Knowledge.

Resolved, That we instruct our Candidate if elected, to do all he can for the whole, and not go for the greatest good for the greatest number only, and remember the Honest Laboring man, and do all he can to lessen his taxes.

The proceedings of the Convention were ordered published in the Milwaukee Free Democrat and Sentinel and Waukesha paper.

The Convention then adjourned.

JONATHAN PARSONS, Ch'n.
HIRAM SMITH, Sec'y.

Tit for Tat.

The Green Bay Advocate came down in the State Administration in this fashion recently:

We are getting sick unto death of Gov. Barstow and his sort of folks. The are fooling the people of this State to the "top of their bent." All their talk and doings in regard to measures and men are so apparently selfish that they nauseate every man of ordinary perceptive faculties, whether he is disposed to be friendly with them or not.—Every act stinks of something. A Notary is not appointed—a piece of school land is not sold—a loan is not made—not a transaction with the State Government seems to be carried on, without being made subservient in some way to the perpetuation of some of these folks. Its very pertinacity is tiresome and disgusting. Democrats with more than one idea pine to see the day again when a Judge, or an Assembly man, or any public officer, can be elected upon some other issue than that of his fealty to "Barstow and the Balance." They would like to feel that it is possible that a public contract can be made—that the public moneys can be disbursed—that the school fund can be managed—that bills can be passed in the Legislature—that we can pay our taxes and go about our business—without pandering to these men. It all excites no hostility in us; we have no more disposition to remark upon the merits of any of them, than we have for distinguishing between a gang of beggars for old clothes; the only sensation it excites is one of fatigue, nausea, and a constant desire to be relieved. And we hope that the time is not far distant when we can get well rid of the whole tribe and go on with our public business in peace, as others States do.

Too which the Madison Argus, the organ of "Barstow and the Balance" replied that Mr. Robinson was defeated for a nomination for Governor, because Green Bay was not large enough to hold two big men,—referring to Morgan L. Martin—and concludes in the following piquant style:

We do not propose to reply to the whinings of aspiring weakness and disappointed malice—we only propose to ask the ex-Secretary of State, if he wishes to provoke investigation into the discharge of his official trust? Are his hands clean of all stain? What does he say of loans made on defective and illegal papers—the law violated in excessive loans to the same individual—mortgages missing from the office and nowhere to be found? What does he say to these things? The committee of investigation last winter made discovery of some curious matters.—They are embodied in the voluminous and intricate report of that body, but may pay the trouble of a search to ascertain exactly what they were and what they amounted to.

C. C. WASHBURN.—This gentleman was at Janesville last Thursday evening, and gave us an address. The notice was short, not being more than three hours, but still the Court House was filled, and those who had the privilege to hear him were well entertained. Mr. Washburn is an able speaker, full of the spirit of freedom, and is earnest in the unadorned eloquence of an honest man. He defined his positions with great clearness; he stands fully on the Madison platform, is a REPUBLICAN, and a warm advocate of reform. He was heartily cheered, and has fully sustained our delegation in choosing him for our candidate for office, and all our republicans are justly proud of him. We have got the right man on the course, and now let old Rock take the lead and give him the heaviest majority of any county in the District. We know that the other counties are wide awake and will do nobly. Green county is all alive, but old Rock is firm, solid, and almost unanimous in hate of the Nebraska and other pro-slavery resolutions. Mr. Washburn has evidently got the back bone, and will nobly represent us.—Janesville Free Press.

AN OLD CHURCH DESTROYED.—The old Lutheran Church in Winchester, Virginia, lately destroyed by fire, was built in the year 1764. It was occupied during the Revolution by British Hessian prisoners, and was one of the old relics which every body desired to see preserved. It has of late been unfortunate. It was used in 1851 for a Democratic Convention, and not long after was struck by lightning. Its demolition was the work of an incendiary.

THE PASSENGERS ON THE RAFT.—The N. Y. Courier and Enquirer says that the poor fellow who was taken from the raft, the only survivor, says that he was so benumbed by cold that £30,000 handed him by one of the passengers who died on the raft, slipped from his hands and was lost.

KISSANE RE-ARRESTED.—On Sunday, the 8th inst., Kissane, the Cincinnati forger, was re-arrested at Cuba, on the Erie Railroad. Kissane was so much injured by his leap from the Express car that he was obliged to stop at this place concealed, until he was found and arrested.

WELL TIMED.—It is understood that some of the leading hunker politicians, headed by Pierce and Douglas have sent letters of condolence to Nicholas for his recent defeat. They know how it feels.

From the Cleveland Leader.

Ohio Right!

There is joy among freemen every where over the result in Ohio. The sentiment expressed by the ballot of the PEOPLE, in the first direct appeal ever made to them in behalf of Freedom, on Tuesday the tenth of October 1854, is at once AMERICAN and TRUE, and the way in which it was done, alike emphatic, and manly. It is a great manifestation, as a bold protest against Wrong, and a heroic defence of Right, and will tell, in the present and in the future, with a power every way favorable to justice and to humanity.

There were, as we all know, side issues, and in special localities, these side issues had some influence; but THE ISSUE, absorbing or towering about all other issues, was Freedom or Slavery. The People put aside, to a wonderful extent, all considerations of party, and of prejudice, and bent their energies, and there will to the fuller expression of a just principle, for the public weal, and in behalf of our common liberties. There was little or no partizan feeling displayed in the contest; in the meetings held the applause was slight, comparatively, the speakers being more earnest and less declamatory, while among hearers there was less of mere enthusiasm, and far more of earnestness and of thought; in every section of the State indeed MIDDLING CLASSES and the LABORING MEN united, and acted, as if the question concerned their very hearths and households, and as if FREE SOIL and FREE LABOR needed their prompt and energetic help. In this spirit was the battle fought, and the victory won, and hence we count the gain of it as of incalculable value in the present, and promising immeasurable good to the Repuolic and to man in the future.

Every sensible voter feft, as he now feels, that the contest of Tuesday, the Tenth of October, was only a skirmish: the beginning of the greater conflict which is to follow in 1856, and of other, and of perhaps harder conflicts to follow that. The Oligarchs will yield nothing.—They will allow no rest to the North, nor stay their strong arm, nor bend their despotic will, until necessity, or the imperial voice of the People compels them to yield. The fight of freemen is only begun, therefore, and we glory in the contest just over because it manifests their sagacity to endure—their intelligence to grasp the consequences, and their patience to battle heroically and unitedly for personal right and the general good, until the law of PUBLIC OPINION of the Statute Book of the Nation shall establish both on the Basis of Justice and the common welfare.

There be those who profess to fear that this new and great movement of the PEOPLE has begun, or will end, in a narrow or sectional action. Its whole spirit gives the lie to this fear. It stands and will continue to stand upon the policy declared by our Fathers, in 1776, and in 1787, and will countenance no action which shall traverse the great AMERICAN doctrines of WASHINGTON and of JEFFERSON, in regard to State Rights and Human Freedom. Our Southern brethren have warred upon us in an aggressive temper, and with a sectional and a purely selfish aim; but, overlooking this, the Freemen of the North will do the Oligarchs justice, and help, not harm or hurt them, by their wise action and National policy. Their aim is to benefit and bless the Republic, the WHOLE Republic, and they will do it upon a basis alike liberal and large, and in a temper at once generous and just. All fears may be dismissed, therefore, on this score, as to the REPUBLICAN party.

We hail its triumph in Ohio, in Maine, Vermont, Iowa, Indiana and Pennsylvania, indeed, as the harbinger of a better day, and congratulate all sides on the great good it has already accomplished, and the greater good it is yet destined to accomplish, for the Republic.

Slavery in Kansas.

The Nebraska papers in the free States, have the impudence to tell their readers that Slavery cannot go to Kansas!

Well, we have published the proceedings of several meetings of the settlers of Kansas, declaring that Slavery already exists there and that Kansas shall be a Slave State! These meetings are not noticed by the Northern Nebraska papers. The Southern Nebraska papers however copy them in full.

The New Albany Daily Tribune, of Monday, week says: "Some twenty-five negro slaves passed through our city on Saturday last, in charge of a slave holder from the South, en route for the territory of Kansas"

The Northern Nebraska papers will not copy that notice, either!

Do they suppose they can keep "the news of the day from their readers?"—Quincy paper.

Of the 17,811 miles of railroad completed in the United Stats, only 4,493 are in the Slave States.

PROCLAMATION
By the Governor of the State of Wisconsin.

Respect for a worthy and time-honored custom—the evident obligation resting upon the people of this State for the degree of health, peace and happiness enjoyed—the rich reward so bountifully bestowed upon the husbandman by a superabundant harvest, and the signal success which has characterized every laudable calling during the past year, demand that we should, as individuals and a people, express in a befitting manner our gratitude to that Being who has thus plentifully vouchsafed these blessings.

Therefore, I, WILLIAM A. BARSTOW, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby designate and recommend that Thursday, the twenty-third day of November next, be observed by all citizens of this State, as a day of Thanksgiving. And I do further respectfully recommend that the Clergy of the various denominations invite their respective congregations to assemble on that day, at their usual places of worship, for the purpose of uniting in praise and thanksgiving.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at Madison, this 11th day of October, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-four.

L.S.

By the Governor. WM. A. BARSTOW.

They were both in the habit of getting drunk frequently, and had been on a drunken spree Sunday afternoon.

The Little Boy's Burial.
BY WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.

Two dark-eyed maids, at shut of day,
Sat where a river rolled away,
With calm, sad brows, and raven hair;
And one was pale, and both were fair.

Bring flowers, they sang, bring flowers unblown,
Bring forest bloom of name unknown;
Bring budding sprays from wood and wild,
To strew the bier of Love, the child.

Close softly, fondly, while ye weep,
His eyes, that death may seem like sleep;
And fold his hands in sign of rest.
His waxen hands across his breast.

And make his grave where violets hide,
Where star flowers strew the rivulet's side,
And blue-birds, in the misty spring
Of cloudless skies and summer, sing.

Place near him, as ye lay him low,
His idle shafts, his loosened bow,
The silken fillet that around
His waggish eyes in sport he bound.

But we shall mourn him long, and miss
His ready smile, his ready kiss,
And prattle of his little feet
Sweet frowns and stammered phrases swet;

And graver looks, serene and high,
A light of heaven in that young eye;
All these shall haunt us till the heart
Shall ache, and ache, and tears will start.

The bow, the band shalt fall to dust,
The shining arrows waste with rust;
And all of Love that earth can claim,
Be but a memory and a name.

Not thus his nobler part shall dwell
A prisoner in his narrow cell;
But he whom now we hide from men,
In the dark ground, shall live again;

Shall break the clouds, a form of light,
With nobler mien and purer sight,
And in the eternal glory stand,
Highest and nearest God's right hand.

Little Ethel.

She sleeps in her little coffin,
She rests by the moaning wave,
And only the star and the zephyr
Keep watch by her little grave,
The violet blooms o'er her pillow,
And breathes its perfume there,
And a wreath of the golden willow,
Encircles her golden hair.

Fair as the fairest flower,
Frail as the lute's soft string,
Forth from affections bower,
Borne on the angel wing,
Glided her spirit lightly,
Lovely, and young, and fair,
With red on her lip yet brightly,
And the glow on her golden hair.

Earth twined her grave with myrtle,
And gemmeth with pearly dew,
Each spray that shineth kirtle,
And bloom of the violet blue.
Yet she waketh not from that sleeping,
Enfolding her gently there,
And tenderly Earth is keeping
Those tresses of golden hair.

Silent the sory bower,
In that deserted home,
Faded the cherished flower,
Hushed every loving tone.
But she sleeps in her little coffin,
She rests by the moaning wave,
And only the star and the zephyr
Keep watch by her little grave.

THE ARCTIC AND INSURANCE.—The melancholy loss of the steamer Arctic, which has cast a tone of gloom and sadness over the community, will involve the insurance offices in large pecuniary losses. We hear of but $15,000 in this city, $10,000 at the Hope office, and $5,000 at the Washington. The ship was insured in England for £60,000, ($300,000) and in this country for $310,000, making the full valuation of the vessel. Besides this, the cargo was large and valuable, and undoubtedly well insured. It is stated that the Atlantic Marine Insurance Company of New York, will be heavy losers—to the extent of a few hundred thousand dollars. The great number of persons who have lost their lives by this shipwreck, will also involve the payment of large sums of money by the Life Insurance Companies.—Boston Eve. Telegraph.

Robbery at Muscoda.—We learn that a daring robbery was committed at Muscoda, on Thursday night, Oct. 5th. The robbers, however, did not succeed in getting very much "plunder," they having confined their operations to the money drawers of the stores they entered. By boring in such a manner that they could unlock the doors, they effected an entrance into the stores of Messrs. F. Hicks, A. Palmer, and J. Parish. The latter gentleman estimates his loss at $50. Nothing has been discovered leading to the detection of the rascals. — Platteville American, 13th inst.

BANGOR, Me., Oct. 16.—The Rev. Mr. Bassett, a Roman Catholic Priest, of this place, was tarred, feathered and ridden on a rail, at Ellsworth, on Saturday evening. He had been previously threatened.

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—At the opening of the U. S. Circuit Court, this morning, Judge Curtis charged the Grand Jury first in respect to the attempted rescue of Burns, and next in regard to the numerous steamboatboat accidents,

SUICIDE.— John Fulford, residing in the town of the Meredith, committed suicide on Tuesday last, by hanging. Mr. Fulford was a farmer, about 60 years of age, and for some few weeks past has been slightly deranged.—Delhi (Delaware Co., N. Y.) Gazette, 11th inst.

THE Buffalo Republic gives currency to a rumor that the schr. Robert Willis, missing since last fall, was captured by the Mormons of Beaver Island, her captain and crew murdered, and the vessel herself stripped and sunk.

An escaped Mormon made oath to the above state of facts, "which are doubtless as true now as they ever were."

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—We are pained to learn the death of WM. S. MCKEE, long known as the able editor of the Missouri Democrat.—He had a strong and cultivated intellect, and was a warm and ardent advocate of his political doctrines.

FIRST WARD.—The Hunkers of this Ward held a Caucus at Best's Hall on Thursday afternoon, next, to appoint delegates to their County Convention, and on Friday afternoon at the same place, to choose delegates to their Senatorial Convention.

At the late State Fair in New York, two pickpockets were caught, labeled and paraded about the grounds by the police. When they were thought to be published enough, they were released. In a few minutes they relieved a man of his pocket book containing 170 dollars and vamosed.

The New York Dutchman says that it is so dry up in Iowa that the steamboat people have to sprinkle the rivers to keep the dust from choking the water-wheels.

A seeming modesty is often a surer evidence of vanity, than a moderate degree of assurance.

The valley of the Neosha or Grand river, in the south of Kansas, is said to be very productive.

ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC.

Great Battle in the Crimea—Russians Utterly Annihilated—Ten Ships of War Sunk—Fall of Sebastopol—The City in Flames—10,000 English and French and 28,000 Russians Killed!

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The Baltic left Liverpool 8 A. M., 4th inst., with 222 passengers, on the 12th inst., off Cape Race, spoke and boarded the British schooner John Clemens, cruising for the missing boats, and learned from them all particulars of the accident. The Africa arrived out Sunday.

Steamer San Jacinto put back to Southampton, with machine damaged, when off Texee broke one of her screws—will be detained for repairs five or six weeks.

On the the 25th Constantine was invaded by sea and land, and after an obstinate defense was carried by storm.

The allies then bombarded the city and the fleet. Ten Russian ships of the line were burned and sunk. The remaining carried after the other 800 guns. 22,000 prisoners were taken. Russian loss in dead and disabled not less than 28,000. In Sebastopol alone Menschikoff with the shattered remains of his army retired into a position in the inner harbor. They threatened to fire the mole and blow up the remaining ships, unless the victors would grant him honorable capitulation. The allied Generals demand his unconditional surrender, and in the name of humanity gave him six considerations.

The last dispatch says Menschikoff has surrendered.

The British and French flags wave over Sebastopol.

The entrenched camp of the Russians on two heights of the Alma, contained 50,000 men and numerous artillery, and were carried at the point of the bayonet after four hours' hard fighting. Nc general officers of the British wounded.

Mons. St. Arnaud and Lord Raglin command ed in person. Gen. Thomason was thought to be fatally wounded. Gen. Caukobert was wounded in the shoulders.

The second engagement, on the plains of Kalatia, lasted several hours, and was not very sanguinary, and ended in the total defeat of the Russians, who were pursued to their entrenchments before Sebastopol. Dispatch states that the garrison of Sebastopol were offered withdrawal but surrendered as prisoners of war.

Dispatches from Sebastopol are very conflicting. The one dated Berlin, the 3d, says a telegraph dispatch has been received here from St. Petersburgh to the effect that Menschikoff had telegraphed under date of 25th that he has withdrawn his troops unmolested from before Sebastopol toward Baklochaserti, where he will await reinforcements. He says that Sebastopol had not been attacked up to the 26th. Russian accounts do not conceal the facts of several reserves in the Crimea to their arms.

Dispatches from Berlin, 29th, say the return of the French fleet from the Baltic had been countermanded, and a dispatch from Kiel, 2d, states that the fleet left that harbor that day to join Napier in the Baltic. Napier was before Revel on the 23d.

BUCHAREST, 3d.—It is again asserted that there are 50,000 Russians in Dobrudscha, and that Gen. Luders is constantly receiving reinforcements.

Omar Pacha was only waiting St. Arnaud's attack on Bessarabia.

All the arrangements of the Turkish army indicate the intention of a winter campaign.

The Russians have concentrated in the neighborbood of Ismad.

Details of the Sebastopol news are not expected to reach the Government before the 6th inst.

The Turks were hastening upon Bulgaria by forced marches to the sea coast.

The Austrian Ambassador at Paris called on Mr. D. L. Hays to express the satisfaction of his Gov't at the success of the Allied armies.

The St. Petersburgh Journal publishes a decree forbidding the export of Corn to Austria.

The Paris correspondent of the Independence Bellge says it is rumored a note has been presented by France and England to the Cabinet at Washington, requiring explanations of the engagements entered into by the U. S. and Russia, especially with respect to the nature and conditions of acquisitions, said to be made to the U. S. from the Russian Possessions in North America.

THE LATEST—LIVERPOOL—WEDNESDAY. —Disturbance had broken out at Burgis, Spain.

Nothing further as to the capture of Sebastopol.

Previous accounts are confirmed.

The Turkish Ambassador presented the London Times a copy of a dispatch, sent him from Constantinople and stated he entertained no doubt of the previously published accounts.

A large ship owner of Liverpool was reported to have suspended payment, but an arrangement for time was understood to have been made.

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—At the opening of the U. S. Circuit Court this morning Judge Curtis, charged the Grand Jury first in respect to the attempted rescue of Burns, and next in regard to the numerous steamboat accidents, stating that notwithstanding the precautionary laws passed by Congress, not a single person guilty of negligence has been convicted or punished, that the laws should be rigorously enforced, though the people were to blame, in desiring speed rather than safety. Against persons who spoke at Faneuil Hall for being accessory to the attack on the Court House, and the death of Batchelder.

Charter Elections.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11.—Our Municipal Election passed off to-day quietly. Mr. Hincks was elected Mayor by 2741 majority.

In the first branch of the City Council six Democrats were elected, and fourteen Know-Nothings. In the second branch two Democrats and eight Know-Nothings.

NEWARK.—The Whigs have carried the Charter Election in Newark by large majorities. H. J. POINIER (whig) is elected Mayor by 1600 majority, and there are 18 Whigs to 5 Democrats elected to the City Council.

TROY, October 15.—M. Nelson, late P. M. at Keesville, who was in jail there for robbing the mail, escaped at night by the aid of a saw and rope. He was to be tried this week.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Gibson, Stockwell & Co., Commission Merchants suspended payment to-day.

CHAS. H. WILLIAMS, Administrator,
with the Will annexed of the Estate of Micajah T. Williams, deceased.

Milwaukee Aug 29, 1854. aug31dtd

This is the state of Man: To-day he puts forth the tender leaves of hope—to-morrow blossoms, and bears his blushing honors thick upon him—the third day comes a frost, a killing frost, and then—he needs a STOVE!

AS THE SEASON IS FAST APPROACHING WHEN something stronger than stimulants will be required to keep us warm, it behooves every one, not already well supplied, to be looking around for their Winter fixins — It is to those who are not well prepared for the coming cold weather, and particularly to those residing in the First and Second Wards, who think the GREAT WESTERN STOVE STORE a long way down the street, that I wish here to address myself. It is true, my location is a little further down than some of my neighbors; but a glance at my well-filled show rooms and my extensive and very superior assortment of Stoves, (never mentioning the very low price at which they are sold), will richly compensate any one for their extra toil and trouble.

I can truly say, I keep the largest, most ample and best assortment of all kinds of Stoves, from a Flat Iron Heater to a Hotel Cooking Stove, ever brought to this market. I have now on hand, of Cook, Parlor and Box, more than 10,000 STOVES!

All of which with as many more, I expect to sell before another Spring, not at a sacrifice, but at prices extremely low. Among my Cooking Stoves, I have the celebrated King of Stoves, a Stove I will warrant to do more cooking in a shorter time and with less fuel than anything that bears the name of Stove. My assortment of Air-Tight and Premium, as also that of Parlor and Box, adapted to the use of either Wood, Coal or Coke, is very large and complete, and if my up-town friends care to save a dollar or two, they will call upon me before purchasing.
